Collect

Almighty God,
whose only Son has opened for us
a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Vicarage Drinks

You are warmly invited to a Vicarage Drinks social evening this October.

📍 31 Mansion Gardens, Evesham, WR11 1BX

🕒 7.30pm — 10.00pm

3rd and 17th October.

There will be two events, and you're welcome to join either one — just RSVP to the church office. Please be aware, due to space restrictions, sign ups are limited at each event, so sign up asap to your chosen date.

We'd especially love to see you if you're new to the St Peter's family, and don't worry — if your spouse or partner doesn't usually come to St Peter's, they're very welcome too!

🚗 Please park as neatly and respectfully as possible for the sake of the neighbours — thank you!

Please sign up by returning this slip to Andy or a member of church staff.

Harvest at St Peter's

We're looking forward to celebrating Harvest together on Sunday 28th September, and we'd love for you to be part of it!

As part of our celebrations, we're inviting everyone to bring dry food donations and household supplies to support Caring Hands in the Vale, a local charity doing vital work right here in our community.

Founded in 2003 as part of Vale of Evesham Christian Centre,

Caring Hands seeks to demonstrate the love of God through the relief of poverty and need in the Vale of Evesham. Their work supports individuals and families facing hardship through practical help and compassionate care.

☛ You can find more about their mission here:

*"As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat,
summer and winter,
day and night will never cease."*

Gospel Reading

Luke 16:1-13

Jesus told his disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions.² So he called him in and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.'

3 "The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg—⁴ I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.'

5 "So he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

6 "'Nine hundred gallons of olive oil,' he replied.

"The manager told him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred and fifty.'

7 "Then he asked the second, 'And how much do you owe?'

"'A thousand bushels of wheat,' he replied.

"He told him, 'Take your bill and make it eight hundred.'

8 "The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light.⁹ I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

10 "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.¹¹ So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?¹² And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?

13 "No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

Post Communion

Lord God, the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.
